DETAILED ACTION

1. The response of 3/19/2007 was received and considered.
2. Claims 1-9, 12-31 & 34-45 are pending.

Response to Arguments

3. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-9, 12-31 & 34-45 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection. However, Applicant's arguments will be addressed.

4. Applicant's response (§II) suggests that the amendment to claim 23 overcomes the previous 35 U.S.C. §101 and §112 rejections. However, the limitation "tangible optical watermark" is not described in the specification. Further, even if the watermark is on a tangible medium, it is still non-functional descriptive material.

5. Applicant's response (§III) argues that the stoclustic screens disclosed by Wang do not have a fixed frequency. This argument is persuasive. However, Applicant's specification does not disclose the limitation "the dot pattern having a fixed frequency for each direction in the dot pattern". Applicant's response (p. 9) points to p. 7 and Figs. 2 and 4 of the specification. P. 7 of the specification describes that the grating should have the same spatial frequency of the dot arrays, but does not disclose that the frequency is fixed. Further, while Figs. 2 & 4 appear to show a regular pattern, the supporting specification and the figures themselves do not provide sufficient disclosure to deem a feature of the invention as having a fixed frequency dot pattern.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

Art Unit: 2134

6. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

7. Claims 1-9, 12-31 & 34-45 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention.

a. Regarding claim 1, the specification does not describe the dot pattern having a fixed frequency for each direction in the dot pattern.

b. Regarding claim 23, the specification does not describe the dot pattern having a fixed frequency for each direction in the dot pattern.

c. Regarding claim 23, the specification does not disclose a tangible optical watermark or what makes the optical watermark tangible.

8. Claims 6 & 28 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the enablement requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention.

d. Regarding claims 6 & 28, the claims recite that the dot pattern is a random distributed dot array; however, independent claims 1 & 23 recite that the dot pattern has a fixed frequency. The specification does not enable one having ordinary skill in the art to make and/or use a random dot array that has a fixed frequency.

9. Any claims rejected under 35 U.S.C. §§102 or 103 below are rejected as best understood in light of the rejections under 35 U.S.C. §112. Further, any claim depending from a claim rejected under 35 U.S.C. §112 is rejected based on that dependency.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

10. 35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

11. Claims 23-31 & 34-45 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter.

e. Regarding claim 23, the claim recites a tangible optical watermark. However, the limitation “tangible” is not disclosed in the specification. Further, an optical watermark, even if provided in tangible form, is non-functional descriptive material and hence does not fall within one of the statutory classes of invention.

Conclusion

12. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO

Art Unit: 2134

MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
